

Duang Prateep Foundation Monthly Newsletter for October 2020

Another Success Story

Not letting a disadvantaged background hold him back, DPF scholarship student, Supphanyu Phomma, proved yet again that a poor child from the Klong Toey slum can achieve great things when given an opportunity. He recently graduated as Dr. Supphanyu, and is ready to start helping other people in his new profession. All of us at the DPF are very proud of him – for his achievement and on becoming a great role model for other Klong Toey children. (6 October 2020)

New Scholarship Support by KPMG Thailand Legal

On October 7, Mr. Charoen Phosamritlert, CEO of KPMG Phoomchai Ltd., and staff visited the Duang Prateep Foundation and presented new scholarship to eighty-eight students from Kindergarten to University level. This the inaugural year for scholarship support to poor students from the company, although its represents the fourth occasion that's they have supported the foundation's work. The ceremony opened with traditional Thai dance by one of the sponsored students, and was followed by a viewing of videos on Youths-Role Model for the Community and foundation activities to protect against the Covid-19 virus. Another student to receive a scholarship represented all 88 students in thanking KPMG for its understanding of the situation and its generous support. Thank-you KPMG for fund-raising help poor students, and we look forward to a long-term collaboration between our two organizations.

Rice Donation from IVL Foundation

On 9 October, representatives from IVL Foundation came to the DPF to donate 310 kg. of rice to teachers from five community children's centers for their lunch programs. The visitors also provided lunch for the students at the DPF kindergarten. On behalf of the children and Duang Prateep Foundation, we would like to thank IVL Foundation for its continued support for our poor children and people.

Jewelry Company Shines for People in Need

As part of their Corporate Social Responsibility program (CSR), K.S. Jewelry International Co., Ltd. distributed Survival Bags of essential daily items to elderly citizens and bed-ridden people in eight Klong Toey slum communities. Company representatives, led by Mr. Adam Komarnicki (GM), coordinated with the DPF to organize the distribution on Saturday, 17 October, with 500 grateful recipients benefitting from this donation. In this difficult time of Covid-19, this is a great example of CSR that directly helps the many people who are suffering from the fallout of the pandemic.

Sponsored Youths camp

On 17-18 October 50 sponsored children and youths from the scholarship section led by Khru Sairoung Raksachob and staff went to the New Life Project, Kanchanaburi center. This activity supported by Thai-Japanese Association. The activities taught the children how to be leadership, creativity for community and society, etc. the last activity was taking them to visit a beautiful temple.

